

For Students in PP/GJ202 - 204
BRING TO ALL FUTURE POV COURSES

1. USPAP Book (current edition)
2. The Appraisal of Personal Property Textbook
3. All Student Manuals
4. All assignments and notes

For 202 bring the following:

5. Select your appraisal object – It should be something within your area of designation, specialty, expertise and interest
 - Select an object you can research and find comparable sales data on, do not select something totally obscure
 - Select an object with at least $1000 replacement value (sets of items like china or silver flatware would qualify.)

Bring photograph(s) of your object – DO NOT BRING THE ACTUAL OBJECT

Bring specifications as to:

- Type of object
- Materials and techniques of manufacture
- Dimensions/measurements
- Inscriptions & markings
- Distinguishing features
- Title (if applicable)
- Subject (if applicable)
- Time frame for creation of the object
- Maker or manufacturer and date, if known, and
- Any known history

The definition of “purpose”

The definition of “intended use”

The definition of each of the Three Approaches to Value

Students may bring a laptop computer to class.