Congratulations on your decision to earn a professional designation from the American Society of Appraisers! You should be proud of what you have accomplished thus far with ASA and we are happy to help you move through the process of achieving either the Accredited Member (AM) or the Accredited Senior Appraiser (ASA) designation.

This guide will provide you with clear, step-by-step instructions on how to earn your designation. In addition, ASA has dedicated staff members specifically trained in your discipline’s accreditation process to help you with any questions or concerns that may arise. ASA’s RP credentialing specialist may be reached by calling our member service center at (800) 272-8258 or (703) 478-2228.

ASA's Advancement Process

Is It True?

Yes. It is true. The ASA advancement process does take time. When ASA receives your completed accreditation file, it is sent out for peer-review to two (2) RP reviewers serving on the ASA International Board of Examiners (BOE). These reviewers go through your entire accreditation package. The initial reviewer will complete an evaluation of your file within forty to sixty (40-60) days and return the packet to ASA Headquarters. The file is then sent to a second reviewer who also has forty to sixty (40-60) days to review and return your file. You will receive notifications during each stage of the accreditation process so you may track your progress.

How Do I Submit My Accreditation Application Package?

Once you have completed all the necessary requirements, you may submit your accreditation application online. You will receive an email notification from ASA Headquarters once your completed application has been received.

What Happens While My Reports Are Out For Review?

While your reports are being reviewed, the RP credentialing specialist will verify all the information provided on your application and will contact you to discuss details of your experience, education and ethical standing.

When Will I Get Some News?

You will receive notifications from us during each stage of the accreditation process. If both reviewers take their allotted forty to sixty (40–60) days to process your file, it could take three to four (3-4) months before you are notified of your final results. Your advancement to Accredited Member (AM) or Accredited Senior Appraiser (ASA) is complete once the International Board of Examiners (with the assistance of the RP credentialing specialist) approves your full-time appraisal experience, educational background, and appraisal reports and determines you have successfully completed the education requirements of the RP discipline. Once approved, you will be awarded your designation. Your certificate and pin will be sent shortly thereafter.

What if My File is Not Approved?

If some portion of your application/report(s) fails to meet ASA guidelines, you will be provided comments on what needs to be resubmitted or repeated. If you do not agree with the decision reached by the BOE, you may forward a written appeal to the attention of the BOE Vice Chair – RP, in care of ASA Headquarters.

Real Property (RP) Guidelines

Real Property Specialties

ASA offers Real Property designations in the following specialties:

- Ad Valorem/Mass Appraisal – General
- Ad Valorem/Mass Appraisal – Residential
- Real Property
- Residential
- Rural
- Timber and Timberland
- Going Concern

Prerequisites

Before applying for a designation in RP, please make sure you meet the following prerequisites:

1. You are an approved ASA Candidate and your USPAP continuing education requirements are up-to-date;
2. You have met the RP discipline education requirements* or have an acceptable equivalency designation from another organization;
3. You have at least a two- (2) year degree for the AM designation or a four- (4) year degree for the ASA designation - more information is provided in the sections below;
4. You hold a valid State Certified Residential License, a valid State Certified General License or can provide supporting documentation of the equivalent educational hours required to obtain these licenses; and
5. You have two (2) years of full-time appraisal experience for the Accredited Member (AM) designation or five (5) years of full-time appraisal experience for the Accredited Senior Appraiser (ASA) designation (2,000 hours = one (1) year of work experience).

**Please note, if it has been more than ten (10) years since you passed the Principles of Valuation courses, The Board of Examiners reserves the right to determine if the courses are still acceptable toward accreditation.*

Applying for the AM or ASA Designation

Please see the corresponding sections below for detailed information and instructions.

- Section 1: AM Designation for State Certified General Appraiser (page 4)
- Section 2: AM Designation for State Certified Residential Appraisers (page 5)
- Section 3: AM or ASA Designation in the Ad Valorem/Mass Appraisal - General Specialty through core course completion (page 6)

There is a lot of information in the following sections. Please make sure you contact the RP credentialing specialist if you have any questions.

Section 1: AM Designation Application Process for State Certified General Appraisers***

If you have a current State Certified General License, please follow the instructions below. Note: the specialty exam is optional for those applying for the AM designation.

1. Complete the online accreditation application;
2. Pay the online accreditation fee;
3. Online Upload: Provide a valid copy of your State Certified General License;
4. Online Upload: Provide proof of two (2) years of full-time appraisal experience - all experience being used toward this requirement must have been obtained after January 30, 1989. Examples of appraisal experience logs may be found on pages 14-15; and
5. Online Upload: Submit two (2) market value reports (may be expanded form style appraisal reports) considering all three (3) approaches to value performed within the last two (2) years (this refers to the report submission date, not the valuation date). These must be actual reports that were done for clients within your chosen specialty. Report checklists are not required for Real Property appraisal reports.

*Individuals can advance to ASA using their State Certified General License and by meeting the 390 hour education requirement (found under Section 6 on page 9); passing the specialty exam; and submitting an experience log demonstrating five (5) years of full-time experience.

Section 2: AM Designation Application Process for State Certified Residential Appraisers***

If you have a current State Certified Residential License, please follow the instructions below. Note, the specialty exam is optional for those applying for the AM designation.

1. Complete the online accreditation application;
2. Pay the online accreditation fee;
3. Online Upload: Provide a valid copy of your State Certified Residential License;
4. Online Upload: Provide proof of two (2) years of full-time appraisal experience - all experience being used toward this requirement must have been obtained after January 30, 1989. Examples of appraisal experience logs may be found on pages 14-15; and
5. Online Upload: Submit two (2) market value reports (may be expanded form style appraisal reports) considering all three (3) approaches to value performed within the last two (2) years (this refers to the report submission date, not the valuation date). These must be actual reports that were done for clients within your chosen specialty. Report checklists are not required for Real Property appraisal reports.

*Individuals can advance to ASA using their State Certified Residential License by meeting the 390 hour education requirement (found under Section 6 on page 9); passing the specialty exam; and submitting an experience log demonstrating five (5) years of full-time experience.

Section 3: AM or ASA Designation in Ad Valorem/Mass Appraisal - General Specialty Through Core Course Completion

To obtain the AM or ASA designation in the Ad Valorem/Mass Appraisal – General Specialty, please follow the instructions below.

* Candidates who are a State Certified General or Residential Appraiser will receive 200 hours towards this requirement if they received their license before 2008 and 300 hours towards this requirement if they received it in 2008 or later.

Section 7: Obtaining a Designation Through an Approved Equivalency or Reciprocity

Equivalency

To obtain an AM or ASA designation through an approved equivalency or reciprocity, the following prerequisites need to be met:

1. Verification you are an approved ASA Candidate and that your USPAP continuing education requirements are up-to-date; and
2. Referring to the equivalency table below - ASA will accept the designations listed in the table on page 11 in lieu of certain accreditation requirements. Please be sure you meet all listed requirements and have all necessary documentation.
3. Candidates may apply online and upload all supporting documentation along with a copy of their equivalent designation for review by the ASA Board of Examiners.

Reciprocity

ASA offers full reciprocity with the Massachusetts Board of Real Estate Appraisers (MBREA). Those holding the “RA” or “MRA” designation with MBREA and are state certified are eligible for an “AM” or “ASA” designation after completing ASA’s membership requirements (proof of five (5) years of full-time appraisal experience may also be required for the ASA designation). MBREA extends a similar reciprocity to ASA members wishing to obtain their designations. Please see the table on page 11 for more information.

Please note: the equivalency or reciprocity program does not provide for an “instant” designation. All Candidates go through ASA’s membership and accreditation approval process.

If an individual has held the IFA designation for 5 years or more, they will qualify for the ASA designation with a residential specialty. An appraisal log will be required. Full reciprocity is offered by NAIFA.

Real Property Going Concern (GC) Specialty

About the ASA-Real Property – Going Concern (GC) Specialty

ASA is now offering the profession's only specialty designation in Going Concern Valuation. This specialty is designed for those appraisers who value complex commercial real estate with a business component, such as car washes, fueling stations/c-stores and lodging properties on a regular basis. Appraisers in this specialty have the knowledge and understanding of when (and when not) to properly allocate/segregate the value components as required by lending institutions, and the ability to analyze their effect on value as required by USPAP.

Applying for the ASA-Real Property – Going Concern Specialty

Before applying online, please be sure you meet the following pre-requisites:

1. Confirm you hold the Accredited Senior Appraiser (ASA) in Real Property and that you are a member in good standing
2. Pass the following education requirements:
  - a. RP401, Allocating Components in Going Concerns Appraisals
  - b. RP400, Going Concerns Appraisals Case Studies
3. Complete the ASA online application for the Going Concern Specialty
4. Pay any online application fees
5. Online Upload: Upload one (1) going concern-related actual report for review

Appraisal Experience Requirements

Definitions

Appraisal Practice, as defined by ASA, encompasses estimating the value of property, forecasting the earning power of property, estimating the cost of property and determining non-monetary benefits or characteristics that contribute to value. Appraising means the preparation of formal written or verbal opinions of value. Pricing is not necessarily appraising.

Full-Time-Equivalent Experience

Appraisal experience is experience in the act or process of estimating value. ASA requires two (2) years of such experience on a full-time basis to achieve the AM designation and five (5) years to achieve the ASA designation. Therefore, an appraiser can fulfill the experience requirement for an AM designation in two (2) years and an ASA designation in five (5) years provided he or she appraises full-time. If the Candidate appraises 50% of the time in the course of his/her work, the full-time experience requirement would be fulfilled in four (4) years for the AM and ten (10) years for the ASA.

Collateral Experience

Collateral experience, by ASA definition, is not appraisal experience for purposes of meeting the two-year and five-year minimum experience requirements. Evaluation of comparable sales or determination of authenticity is frequently a necessity for the determination of value. When the purpose of that work is to determine value, it is part of appraisal experience. When it's not, the work is considered collateral experience. The determination of problems in a business, auditing the books of a corporation, authenticating an art object or determining its provenance may or may not be appraisal work. By themselves (i.e., not as a part of an appraisal/valuation assignment) these functions are not classified by ASA as appraisal experience. As noted in ASA's Code of Ethics, appraisal is the determination of value. Although collateral experience is extremely important to a professional, it does not qualify as full-time-equivalent appraisal experience and will not be credited as such by ASA.

The following are examples of collateral experience that are not considered appraisal experience by ASA:

- A fine art appraiser's experience in art restoration or the sale of estate items.
- A financial analyst's experience in determining whether an asset meets specified investment requirements.
- A lawyer's experience acting as a mediator on valuation issues.
- Time spent attending auctions.

Understanding the Appraisal Experience Requirement

When a Candidate fills out ASA's accreditation application, he or she should supply sufficient information to enable the International Board of Examiners to determine whether or not the Candidate meets ASA's experience requirements. It is the obligation of the Candidate to portray the actual, provable experience sufficiently well to allow examiners to quantify that experience in terms of months and years of full-time or full-time-equivalent experience. It should be noted that appraisal experience is specific, not generic. The experience must be relevant to the candidate's chosen specialty within the Real Property discipline.

Appraisal Reports

Appraisal Reports

Appraisal reports represent an important component of the accreditation process. Reports that are prepared by a Candidate for a client demonstrate the quality and professionalism offered by the Candidate to the public. Such reports assist the Board of Examiners in evaluating the scope of practice, ethical attitude and levels of education and appraisal competence achieved by the Candidate.

Appraisal reports must conform to the Uniform Standards of Professional Appraisal Practice (USPAP), to the Principles of Appraisal Practice and Code of Ethics and any discipline-specific standards adopted by the American Society of Appraisers.

What Is an Appraisal Report?

The following sources outline the requirements of a written appraisal report:

- Uniform Standards of Professional Appraisal Practice \(USPAP\), Standards 1 and 2
- ASA's Principles of Appraisal Practice and Code of Ethics \(Sections 6.2 and 8\)

Candidates should keep in mind the intent of these standards. For example, Section 6.2 of ASA's Principles of Appraisal Practice and Code of Ethics states:

The procedure and method for determining the particular value in question is a matter for the appraiser to determine—the appraiser cannot be held responsible for the result unless he or she has a free hand in selecting the process by which that result is to be obtained. However, good appraisal practice requires that the method selected be adequate for the purpose, embrace consideration of all the factors that have a bearing on the value, and be presented in a clear and logical manner.

The conclusions that have a bearing on value must be supported and presented in a clear and logical manner. Failure in this area is the most common weakness in appraisal reports submitted for accreditation purposes. Candidates should read the appraisal reports selected for submission through the eyes of an outsider and ask such questions as:

- Are all relevant standards adhered to?
- Is the report clear and logical?
- Are all statements and conclusions that contribute to value supported?
- Was credit given to the source of the value definitions and are the definitions used consistently throughout the report?
- Is the report understandable?

Appraisal reports that do not meet these requirements are not considered to be “comprehensive” as is required for ASA accreditation purposes by the International Board of Examiners.

Submitting Appraisal Reports for Review

- Appraisal reports must be actual expanded form style reports prepared for clients or employers.
- Appraisal reports must be no more than two (2) years old.
- If the Candidate completed the work, but a principal of the firm signed the report, the principal must provide a letter signed by the principal indicating that the Candidate did the work on the report.
- Client references must be redacted from the report unless you have written permission from the client to use the report for accreditation purposes (see the release form on page 18). If the appraisal report release form is used, it should be made part of the appraisal report when submitted.

Online Accreditation Application Checklist

NEW! Online Application

ASA's accreditation application process is now online! Please be sure all of the items below have been confirmed and/or submitted during the online application process. Should you have any questions along the way, please contact the RP credentialing specialist for assistance.

AM and ASA Accreditation Application Checklist

- ___ 1. You are an approved ASA Candidate.
- ___ 2. You uploaded the required state license or the approved equivalency designation or reciprocal designation making you eligible for the AM or ASA designation.
- ___ 3. You passed the RP specialty exam or general exam (if required).
- ___ 4. You uploaded a copy of your two-year degree (or higher) for the AM designation or your 4-year degree (or higher) for the ASA designation or you provided proof of completion of your required educational courses if you are applying through an approved equivalency.
- ___ 5. You uploaded an appraisal experience log documenting two (2) years (AM) or five (5) years (ASA) of full-time appraisal experience or the equivalent part-time experience (example on pages 14-15).

Additional Information

Moving From AM to ASA in RP

Any RP Accredited Member (AM) may apply to advance to Accredited Senior Appraiser (ASA) status by:

- Completing the online AM to ASA accreditation application;
- Paying the online accreditation application fee;
- Uploading an appraisal experience log demonstrating an additional three (3) years of full-time appraisal experience or the equivalent; and
- Passing the RP specialty exam.

Maintaining Your Designation

All designated members are required to submit evidence of professional growth through continuing education and/or participation in professional activities every five (5) years to maintain the AM and ASA designations. ASAs who do not reaccredit will be reverted to the grade of Accredited Member (AM). AMs who do not reaccredit will be reverted to the grade of Candidate. Information and reminders are sent by ASA Headquarters providing you ample notice of your upcoming reaccreditation due date.

Earning an Additional Specialty in RP

Any RP Accredited Senior Appraiser (ASA) in good standing may apply for Accredited Senior Appraiser (ASA) status in more than one appraisal specialty within RP. The procedure is as follows:

- Successfully complete the appropriate specialty examination (if required);
- Complete the online application process – upload any required documentation, pay the application fee, and upload an appraisal log documenting (at minimum) one (1) year of full-time/equivalent appraisal experience in the new specialty; and
- Upload two (2) appraisal reports demonstrating knowledge in the new discipline/specialty (ARM, BV and MTS require only one (1) report).

Earning an Additional Designation in RP

Any Accredited Senior Appraiser (ASA) in good standing in disciplines other than RP may apply for Accredited Senior Appraiser (ASA) status in the RP discipline. The procedure is as follows:

- Successfully complete the necessary education or provide an equivalent or reciprocal designation.
- Successfully complete the specialty examination (if required) in your chosen specialty;
- Complete the online application, pay the application fee and upload an appraisal log documenting (at minimum) three (3) years of full-time/equivalent appraisal experience in RP; and
- Upload two (2) appraisal reports demonstrating knowledge in the RP discipline and chosen specialty.
