Chapters must confirm that every attendee has all required materials.

USPAP Prices for ASA Chapters

Education providers are no longer allowed to distribute PDF copies of the USPAP materials and must now provide each student with unique promo codes to order the USPAP materials themselves, free of charge, from the Appraisal Foundation website. Your chapter can order promo codes from ASA HQ using this order form, but please note the following:

- Promo code orders need to be received and paid for at least five business days before the class
- The chapter is responsible for distributing the promo codes to students and troubleshooting any issues
- Unused promo codes cannot be returned or refunded

Hard copies can be purchase from The Appraisal Foundation's online store or by calling 800-348-2831.

Class refund policy

For reference, ASA's refund policy states that class registrations are fully refundable until course materials are distributed

While ASA headquarters will manage registration and issue course certificates for your chapter USPAP class, the chapter is responsible for all other aspects of the class, including but not limited to:

- Finding a USPAP instructor
- Obtaining a location for the class
- Determining its refund policy
- Answering any questions about the class not related to registration
- Ordering printed USPAP materials from the Appraisal Foundation or completing the 2026-2027 USPAP Electronic Course Materials Order Form for Chapters and paying for your order at least five business days before the class date
- Distributing promo codes for electronic course materials and troubleshooting any issues
- Sending the Zoom, or other online platform, link to all students before the class and troubleshooting any issues they may have joining the class
- If offering the 15-hour course, proctoring the exam
