

Jake Fish

Election Biography

Mr. Fish began his appraisal career in 2000 assisting with research and report preparation for R. Stanley Johnson (then ASA) while working as a gallery representative at R S Johnson Fine Art of Chicago. In 2006 he joined Douglas Tomsky & Associates as a full-time associate valuer specializing in fine and decorative art and antiques. During his time with Tomsky & Associates Mr. Fish provided valuation services for private, corporate and legal clientele that extended beyond traditional appraisal practice and included educational presentations on valuation methodology, damage, restoration and conservation analysis, and preparation of materials used in personal property related litigation. Since 2009 Mr. Fish has collaborated with The Alasko Company in valuation of fine art and historic property.

Why do you feel you are qualified for this position?

As a member at-large, I'll continue to help facilitate the Committee's goals and work towards the interests of the Personal Property membership.

What contributions have you provided ASA as a member or to a comparable organization(s)?

Since June 2020 I have served as a member at-large on The Personal Property Committee and was a member of the planning committee for the 2020 and 2021 International Conferences of the ASA.

What do you wish for ASA's members?

I'd like the public to have a greater appreciation for the value of our members' qualifications and services.

What do you wish for ASA in the profession?

ASA should continue to be a leader in maintaining high standards for professional appraisal practice.

Why should members vote for you?

Thank you for considering my candidacy. I'd sincerely appreciate your vote if you'd like me to continue helping The Personal Property Committee operate within ASA towards the benefit of Personal Property Discipline members.
