Re-thinking DLOCs and DLoms from Market Evidence

Robert Schlegel, FASA, MCBA | Principal | Houlihan Valuation Advisors

Penny Lutocka, ASA, CPA/ABV, CFE | Principal | Houlihan Valuation Advisors

BV theory is that Discounts for Lack of Control (“DLOC”) are derived from evidence of Control Premiums in Mergerstat Review and the FactSet Mergerstat/BVR Control Premium Study. There are negative control premiums, and “Strategic” and “Financial” acquisitions. Many businesses have no presumption of acquisition, and may not see control basis adjustments to the financial statements. If the prerogatives for control do not suggest substantial differences between controlling and non-controlling cash flows, why would the DLOC be high? The issue of a Discount for Lack of Marketability is likely the most hotly debated subject in Estate and Gift work, and is normally applied based not only on the “studies” but also specific market evidence. Should an appraiser apply both of these discounts in every method? This session will provide differential statistics and discuss the likely steps appraisers should consider in using market data to derive a supportable DLOC and DLom in various methods.

Hot topics in Valuations of Private Company Securities

Amanda A. Miller, Ph.D. | Managing Director | Ernst & Young, LLP (EY)

The last few years have been a rollercoaster for valuations of private company securities, from the boom in SPACs and strong secondary markets in late 2020/early 2021, to the much tighter markets and liquidity challenges for many companies in 2023. This presentation will cover the trends that we are seeing in the first part of 2024 and the implications for valuations of private company securities.

Pepperdine Private Capital Markets Report: 2024 Findings and Effective Use

Craig Everett, Ph. D. | Finance Professor | Pepperdine Graziadio Business School

The Pepperdine Private Capital Markets Report offers an alternative to the build-up method for determining cost of capital for a private firm. A firm's cost of capital is based on the opportunity cost faced by the investors. Thus, cost of capital must be equal to the expected returns of the investor over time and on an aggregate basis. Rather than inferring investor expectations, the annual Private Capital Markets survey asks investors what their expected returns are. This provides a valuable reality check against the build-up method for valuation professionals.

Expert Appraisers as Expert Witnesses: A Mock Trial Event

Pamela Bensoussan, ASA, ARM, ISA, AM | Owner | Bensoussan & Associates

Terri Lastovka, ASA, CPA, JD, ARM | Owner | Valuation & Litigation Consulting, LLC

Richard Conti, ASA, ARM | President, Senior Appraiser | Conti Appraisal Service

Charles Dixon, ASA | President/Owner | CD Valuation Services, Inc.

Jack Young, ASA, CPA | Owner, Senior Appraiser | NorCal Valuation

J. Mark Penny, FASA | Managing Director | Hempstead & Co LLC

John Rake | Managing Partner | Larkins Vacura Kayser LLP

Attendees from all disciplines are invited to witness appraisers and appraisal reviewers testifying in the hot seat! ASA appraisal professionals will swear under mock oath to testify in various mock lawsuits revolving around a fictional Oregon wildfire disaster, involving multiple disciplines. This extended ARM session will spotlight segments of unscripted testimony with real attorneys using real courtroom strategies. This mock trial session will highlight expert witness testimony based on real world assignments, involving various property types. Mediation, deposition, and courtroom testimony will be featured. This educational event is hosted by the Appraisal Review & Management Committee, which offers POV courses in appraisal review report writing, appraisal management, and litigation services. Plan to attend this mock— yet very realistic— unscripted afternoon....as court will be in session!

Counterpoint to DCF as Only Method for RE Holding Companies

Carla Glass, FASA, CFA | Managing Director | Marcum LLP

Some hold the position (such as a presenter at the 2023 ASA Conference) that a discounted cash flow method is the only acceptable way to value interests in real estate holding companies. In stating that position, the application of a discount for lack of control to the NAV is discarded an unacceptable method of valuation. This presentation provides counterpoints to some of the assertions in that presentation (and expressed in similar documents/presentations) while discussing an acceptable means of using the NAV and a DLOC. An income approach is excellent, but that doesn't mean that other approaches are unacceptable.

A 10-Year Forensic Analysis of the USA's Financial Statements

Darrell D. Dorrell, ASA, MBA, CPA, CVA, CMA, ABV, CFF | Partner | financialforensics®

This session documents, presents and critiques the AUDITED (by GAO) balance sheets, income statements, cash flow statements, footnotes, and ancillary reporting of the published (by Treasury & OMB) financial statements reporting the INSOLVENT financial condition of the United States of America for the last ten (10) fiscal years. Drill-down analysis will disclose and analyze the revenue (taxation), expenditures, and related categories required to discern the financial performance of our federal decision makers. The analysis comprises traditional and contemporary analytical methods that attendees will recognize as similar to their own analysis of client public/private financial statements.

Economic Uncertainty and Election Headwinds – Cost of Capital Ramifications

Carla Nunes, CFA, ABV | Managing Director | Kroll LLC

James P. Harrington | Director | Kroll LLC

In attempting to control surging inflation, in 2022 major central banks embarked on one of the fastest rate hiking cycles in history. Market participants are split on whether the U.S. economy will achieve a soft landing and when will the Fed cut short-term policy rates to a more neutral level. Political uncertainty will also be high, as we approach U.S. Presidential elections. Join Carla Nunes and James Harrington (both of Kroll) as they deliver a global economic and financial market update and discuss the related impact on cost of capital assumptions and valuation analyses.

Explaining Your Valuation to Mom over a Cup of Coffee

Mary Warmus, ASA, CPA | Director, Valuation Services | MichaelSilver

Often times we work with clients that have never bought or sold a business, required a valuation to affect a tax strategy, or perhaps testify in front of a judge that has a limited financial background. The work we do is complex and so are the transactions we perform the work for. This presentation, with real life examples, aims to demonstrate how effective communication goes a long way to give the client (judge) comfort with the transaction and our work. Building credibility and trust may result in future referrals from our clients, their counsel and even judges.

Maximizing the Business Price: Strategies for Enhanced Value Capture

Vanessa Brown Claiborne, ASA, CPA/ABV, AEP | Chief Executive Officer & President, Shareholder | Chaffe and Associates

Nene Gianfala, ASA-BV/IA, CPA/ABV | Vice President, Shareholder | Chaffe and Associates

The presentation focuses on elevating sale prices by optimizing financial performance pre-sale and conducting meticulous due diligence. We will discuss how to foster a competitive bidding environment, and how to skillfully negotiate deal structures. By leveraging these strategies, the aim is to enhance the perceived value of the target company, attract competitive offers, and ultimately secure a higher sale price. This comprehensive approach aims to optimize the M&A process and maximize the sales price.

Mock Mediation: What Really Matters

Barry J. Cunningham, Ph.D., ASA, MAI, AI-GRS | CEO | Property Tax Research, LLC

As appraisers, we are sometimes drawn into hostile environments shrouded in cordial banter and usually, though not always, polite talk of the weather. All the while, you know deep down that it's a battle over your opinion versus someone else's. It's fluid and unpredictable. But there are some common denominators regarding process and people. Namely, conflict runs in stages. And personality traits are fairly consistent. This mock mediation is a fun and educational exercise involving volunteers from the class in it usually results in loud laughter.

Strong ARM: Building your Skillset with ARM Training

Charles Dixon, ASA | President/Owner | CD Valuation Services, Inc.

J. Mark Penny, ASA | Managing Director | Hempstead & Co LLC

What is ARM? In the 1980's, when the Appraisal Foundation was developing the first USPAP publication, they recognized the need for qualified appraisal reviews/appraisal reviewers and with common standards, just as USPAP Standards for other appraisal disciplines (RP, BV (intangible assets), Mass, PP. development and reporting). Standard 3 was developed and contained the requirements for review, development, and reporting all in the one Standard (3). Since then, Development and Reporting are their own separate Standards (3 and 4). ARM provides appropriate analyses development for logical reviews and demonstrates competent review writing skills for an understandable presentation, including protection against defamation. Appraisal Review can help you become a better appraiser, provide an additional income stream for your business, and supports the appraisal profession by increasing public trust in the profession.

Implicit Bias in Valuation

Michael A. Gregory, ASA, CVA, Qualified Mediator with the MN Supreme Court | Founder | Michael Gregory Consulting, LLC

Mike will provide information from various sources related to bias and unconscious bias.

Ideas will be presented on how we as individuals and as organizations can take steps to overcome bias. A deeper dive is offered into how we as appraisers can address bias and prejudice in Valuation. As appraisers we can reduce bias by paying attention, having a clear intention to address bias, and take specific actions to reduce bias. These elements are being offered for your consideration for you to be proactive in this area in the future.
