Bullet Proofing your Workfile

Byron Miller, SRA, AI-RRS, RAA, MSSE | President | BM Appraisals

Appraisal work files are one of the most important components of an appraisal assignment. However, they are often overlooked and under documented. The majority of censures include penalties for a lack of or sub-standard work file. Appraisers in their haste to complete the assignment often overlook the importance of providing adequate documentation for their work file. If you are wondering how to dodge a bullet, then look no further! This session presents the essentials of providing a complete work file. Taught from the perspective of “boots on the ground” appraisers, this session presents items required by the Uniform Standards of Professional Appraisal Practice or USPAP as well as additional requirements mandated by state regulators. Benefit from a better understanding of USPAP and common state regulations, enabling you to adhere to the statute requirements and dodge a bullet when it comes to your work file.

Mock Mediation: What Really Matters

Barry J. Cunningham, Ph.D., ASA, MAI, AI-GRS | CEO | Property Tax Research, LLC

As appraisers, we are sometimes drawn into hostile environments shrouded in cordial banter and usually, though not always, polite talk of the weather. All the while, you know deep down that it's a battle over your opinion versus someone else's. It's fluid and unpredictable. But there are some common denominators regarding process and people. Namely, conflict runs in stages. And personality traits are fairly consistent. This mock mediation is a fun and educational exercise involving volunteers from the class in it usually results in loud laughter.

Appraisal Modernization: Changes to Embrace, Changes to Resist

Craig Steinley, MAI, SRA, AI-GRS, AI-RRS | Principal | Steinley Real Estate Appraisals and Consulting

“Appraisal modernization” refers to efforts to improve the appraisal process through better use of technology. But for many appraisers, “modernization” is code for less reliance on appraisers and more reliance on data collectors and artificial intelligence. At the Appraisal Institute, we support modernization efforts that enhance the ethical standards of professional appraisers in maintaining the public trust by ensuring excellence in real property valuation. Some efforts referred to as “modernization” support the work of professional appraisers, requiring and showcasing their expert analysis and opinion of value based on data, whereas some do not, substituting lesser methods of arriving at values with far less validity. This is an important opportunity to consider these two aspects of “modernization” and to take a stand on which trends are supportive of improvements in appraisal and will enhance the impact of the next generation of our profession, and which are deeply concerning, not just for the profession, but also for the public.

Strong ARM: Building your Skillset with ARM Training

Charles Dixon, ASA | President/Owner | CD Valuation Services, Inc.

J. Mark Penny, ASA | Managing Director | Hempstead & Co LLC

What is ARM? In the 1980’s, when the Appraisal Foundation was developing the first USPAP publication, they recognized the need for qualified appraisal reviews/appraisal reviewers and with common standards, just as USPAP Standards for other appraisal disciplines (RP, BV (intangible assets), Mass, PP. development and reporting). Standard 3 was developed and contained the requirements for review, development, and reporting all in the one Standard (3). Since then, Development and Reporting are their own separate Standards (3 and 4). ARM provides appropriate analyses development for logical reviews and demonstrates competent review writing skills for an understandable presentation, including protection against defamation. Appraisal Review can help you become a better appraiser, provide an additional income stream for your business, and supports the appraisal profession by increasing public trust in the profession.

Implicit Bias in Valuation

Michael A. Gregory, ASA, CVA, Qualified Mediator with the MN Supreme Court | Founder | Michael Gregory Consulting, LLC

Mike will provide information from various sources related to bias and unconscious bias. Ideas will be presented on how we as individuals and as organizations can take steps to overcome bias. A deeper dive is offered into how we as appraisers can address bias and prejudice in Valuation. As appraisers we can reduce bias by paying attention, having a clear intention to address bias, and take specific actions to reduce bias. These elements are being offered for your consideration for you to be proactive in this area in the future.
